

HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONAL AND ALLIED HEALTH CARE PROFESSIONAL DESCRIPTORS

Health Care Professionals
Chiropractor	He/she should be registered with the General Chiropractic Council (GCC) as a Chiropractor, and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. For more information visit: www.gcc-uk.org
Doctor	He/she should be registered with the General Medical Council (GMC), and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. A doctors registration status can be checked at: www.gmc-uk.org
Nurse	He/she should be registered with the Nursing & Midwifery Council (NMC), and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. A nurses registration status can be checked at: www.nmc-uk.org
Osteopath	He/she should be registered with the General Osteopathy Council as an Osteopath, and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. For more information visit: www.osteopathy.org.uk
Paramedic	He/she should be registered with the Health & Care Professions Council (HCPC) as a State Registered Paramedic, and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. If working outside the NHS they will require their own indemnity insurance. Registration status can be checked at: www.hcpc-uk.org
Physiotherapist	He/she should be registered with the Health & Care Professions Council (HCPC) as a Physiotherapist, and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. Registration status can be checked at: www.hcpc-uk.org More information on physiotherapists is available at: www.csp.org.uk

March 2019

Teamwork Respect Enjoyment Discipline Sportsmanship

Allied Health Care Professionals

Sports Massage Therapist	He/she should be qualified to Level 4 or above and be registered as a full member of a recognised association listed by the GCMT (previously General Council of the Massage Therapies now renamed Council of Soft Tissue Therapies. He/she should have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. For more information visit: www.gcmt.org.uk
Sports Rehabilitators	He/she should be registered as a full member with BASRaT (British Association of Sports and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or immediate care. For more information visit: www.basrat.org
Sports Therapist	He/she should be qualified to Level 5 or above and be registered as a full member of a one recognised association of the following and have appropriate experience and training in first aid and/or pre-hospital immediate care. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Society of Sports Therapists (SST) Sports Therapy Association (STA) Sports Therapy Organisation (STO) For more information visit the appropriate website: SST - www.society-of-sports-therapists.org STA - www.thesta.co.uk STO - www.sportstherapyorganisation.org.uk

March 2019

Teamwork Respect Enjoyment Discipline Sportsmanship